EUROPE.

A Peaceful Solution Still Doubtful--The Russian Militia Taking the Field.

BUCHAREST, April 23.—The Russians have ordered the bridge over the Pruth, at Skulana, completed within ten days.

LONDON, April 23.—The Times' correspondent at St. Petersburg says, the discussion relative to the withdrawal, from Constantinople continues in a friendly spirit, and as it concerns technicalities, it requires the advice of specialists on the spot, it may be protracted. If England and Russia agree regarding the withdrawal, it will be necessary to obtain a guarantee from the Porte that it will offer no obstacle to the reestablishmhnt of the status quo in the event of the failure of further negotiations, as Russia will probably be somewhat exacting on this point, as she is convinced that in case of hostilities the Porte would not side with her. It is quite possible that this point will cause serious difficulties, for Turkish diplomatists have little reason to desire a peaceful solution.

A Belgrade special to the Times' states that military preparations have been completed, and all the militia has been called out.

Prince Milan is ill..

Intelligence received in Paris says: "The Nihilist Propaganda, in Russia is considerably extending.

The daily Telegraph has advices from Cracow that the Russian rail roads are encumbered by the transport of troops to the North, to check the threatened disturbances in various centers of education. The garrisons of Moscow and Kieff have been reinforced.

Telegrams from Vienna indicate that the Pour-parlers between Austria and Russia, about which little has been said the last few days, are not going on very smoothly. The evidence of this is believed to be found in the attacks in which the Russians press are indulging against Austria.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23.—The Journal De St. Petersburg to-day published an article in which, while expressing the belief that the Congress will soon assemble, and says this alone will not constitute a guarantee of peace. The Journal considers it is necessary that a frank and exhaustive exchange of views between the cabinets should precede the Congress. It concludes as follows: "If the British Cabinet really desires peace, at the same time expects greater advantages for England by intimidating Russia, it is playing a dangerous game which will lead not to peace but to war

Forty-Fifth Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—SENATE.—Mr. Morrill of Vermont, from the Committee on Finance, reported favorably on the House bill to prohibit the coinage of the 20-cent pieces of silver. Passed.

The House is wrangling over the irregular manner in which the River and Harbor bill passed.

The Finance Committee of the Senate took no action to press the action or its substitute for resumption of the repeal bill of the House.

HOUSE.—The protest which Cox, of New York, presented on Monday, against the passage of the river and harbor appropriation bill, under a suspension of the rules occupied the whole of to-day's session, and gave rise to one of the noisiest and most tumultuous scenes that the House has ever witnessed. There was no ill feeling manifested on the part of any one, but the proceedings were very disorderly.

Reagan, of Texas, chairman of the committee on commerce, defended the action of that committee in the course which it had pursued in reference to the bill, and showed that every river and barbor appropriation bill that had been passed in the House for the last 16 or 18 years had been passed under a suspension of the rules;denied that there had been any log-rolling resorted to, and asserted that many of those who had signed the protest had done so because the Committee had not recommended for their own Distrlcts as large amounts as they had demanded. A call was made on him for the names, but he declined to give them. Ellis, of Louisiana, however denounced himself as one of the members so alluded to, but denied that in his opposition to the bill he was actuated by any such motive; as an instance of the reckless manner in which the bill provided for internal improvements he referred to two rivers in Pennsylvania, so inconsiderable that the Speaker (a native of that State) had never heard of them. That allusion brought out White, of Pennsylvania, on whose suggestion these rivers had been put in the bill, and who described these rivers as important links in the navigation of the Alleghany and Ohio, and on the other side Wright and Bridgers of Pennsylvania, who ridiculed them as trout streams in the Alleghany mountains. The Speaker did not wish to be placed in the position in which Ellis' remark might have placed him in the estimation of the people of Western Virginia; and so he corrected Ellis, and said that his remark had been that the streams were not navigable.

Cox, of New York, spoke of a Kentucky river (provided for in the bill) as one which could only be made a thoroughfare by being macadamized, and alluded to other rivers as streams that could not afford a dam by a mill site, and could not afford a mill by a damned sight. Finally, after a five hours' session, the House by a vote of 180 to 60, refused to entertain the protest as a question of privilege.

The House, on motion of Hunton, of Virginia, passed the bill removing the political disabilities of Thos. L. Moore, of Virginia.

Durham, of Kentucky, reported that the Conference committee on the deficiency bill for additional clerks in the Treasury department had agreed upon a compromise, and the report was accepted.

Confirmations: Colburn, Consul General to the City of Mexico. Hubbs, Postmaster at Newbern, N. C.

Nominations: Thomas A. Henry, Collector of Customs at Pimlico, N. C. Dekle, Postmaster at Thomasville, Ga.

Failures.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 23.—Anson B. Miner filed a petition in bankruptcy yesterday. Secured debts, $74,000; unsecured, $82,000; with $127,000 in bills discounted. Assets nominal.

Resolutions of Respect.

NEW YORK, April 23,—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Western Union Telegraph Company, this afternoon, a preamble and resolution were adopted setting forth that by the death of Mr. Orton, who for twelve years, was President of the Company, They had lost a friend endeared to them by long and agreeable association and whom they had learned to esteem no less for his high moral worth, and sterling character, than for his great and recognized ability, and that while deeply lamenting the loss of so able and distinguished an officer, so suddenly removed by death. They sorrow still more for the parting from so true and cherished an associate. Dr Green, Vice President, was elected President of the Company, in place of Mr. Orton to hold the office during the pleasure of the Board.

TRIAL OF THE WORLEY MURDERERS.

The Case set for Tuesday Next.

(Special despatch to the News.)

GOLDSBORO, N. C., April 23d, 1878.

The trial of Noah Cherry, Robert Thompson and Harriss Atkinson for the murder of Worley and wife in February last has been set for Tuesday next.

A special venire of two hundred freeholders has been ordered from which the jury is to be drawn.

Sparks from the Wires.

The defalcation of treasurer Hathaway, of Border City Mills at Fall River, will approximate a quarter of a million. Hathway was a kinsman of Chace, and a partner in his operations. The extent of the joint swindle is unknown.

A despatch from Barnstable, Mass., says a heavy fire raged all day yesterday in the woods in Dennis, and was still burning at a late hour last night, having crossed over into Brewster. Some 8,000 acres have been burned.

The Manchester Guardian has a despatch from Londonderry saying that the police have discovered important evidence regarding the murder of Lord Leitrim.

E. H. Goff, President of the Boston, Portland and Montreal Railroad, was arrested, charged with false returns and forgery.

Advices from Nicaragua stated that $30,000 were paid to the Dutch, and their flag was saluted. In consequence of this exaction public officers of Nicaragua are on half pay and public schools have been stopped.

The nut and bolt factory of Lafayette Hall, at New Market, N. H., have been burned. Loss $34,000.

A despatch from Memphis says, at 9 o'clock last night a rain and thunder storm set in and continued throughout the night; and 2.85 inches of rain fell. Bayou Gaoyoss has overflowed and swept away the bridges at Second street.

Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, April 23.—Gov. Packard having abandoned the field for the collectorship, has thrown his influence for Albert Leonard or Gov. Hasu, as his only available friends. His opposition to Geo. L. Smith is political, not personal.

The President has decided not to send Smith's name to the Senate as collector of the Port of New Orleans. There has been much lying on this subject, but the truth is reached at last. Either Albert Leonard, or Eliza Pinkston, will have the place if the Senate advises and consents.

The President and party leave in the morning for Philadelphia.

The Cabinet to-day, was devoted to the discussion of pardons.

Mexican Indians Raiding.

NEW ORLEANS, April 23.—The Galveston News publishes a special from Fort McIntyre, stating that Indian raiders of Mexico have killed many people and carried off two white boys, the correspondent expresses the belief that these raiders are incited by the supporters of Lerdo, for the purpose of bringing about a misunderstanding between the United States and Diaz Government. The mail carrier who left Fort Davis, Saturday, was murdered by Indians, twenty miles from that post. A detatchment of cavalry has been sent out.

An Attempt to Assassinate a Prince.

VIENNA, April 23.—Two shots were yesterday fired at the Prince of Thurn and Taxis, Chief Equerry to the Emperor, Francis Joseph, by a commercial agent. Both missed their object. The motive for the firing is stated to be a refusal of the Prince to assist the agent.

Kidnapping Negroes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 23.—Special agents of the Government report with great positiveness that Louisiana and Florida negroes have been kidnapped and are in slavery in Cuba, and it is slyly intimated that persons in this interest put the spider in Leonard's soup.

A Cashier and $45,000 Missing.

TIFFAN, O., April 23.—O. C. Zeller, cashier of the National Exchange Bank and $45,060, are missing.

Ninety Thousand Operatives Striking.

MANCHESTER, April 23.—It is calculated that there are now between 80,000 and 90,000 on a strike.

Marriage of Dr. Lucky.

(Charlotte Observer.)

Now the announcement is made of the marriage of our excellent but long obdurate friend, Dr F N Lucky, of Rowan. On the 17th inst., at Back Creek Presbyterian church, in the county named, he was united in marriage to Miss Lenora Neely, Rev J A Ramsay officiating. Dr Lucky has been at different times a member of the Legislature from Rowan, is well known in many parts of the State and the circle of his friends is only limited by the circle of his acquaintance. The doctor has many friends here in Charlotte, and anybody who was sharp might have gotten a $5,000 bet that he would never be caught in the matrimonial net.

Notwithstanding the fresh section of the Judgment Day which has intruded itself upon Beecher's private life, he continues to lecture at $500 a night. It is probable that the latest missive from Elizabeth will prove a stunning advertisement for the rollicking shepherd, and will keep him luoratively employed on the platform for some time.—Courier-Journal.

LETTER FROM CHARLOTTE.

Judicial and Municipal Politics.

Special Correspondence of the News.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 22, 1878

The interest in the Supreme Court is in no way abating. There are hundreds of the old Scotch-Irish yeomanry in this section who will never vote for a man who is guilty of intrigue in securing his own nomination. A Judge should be the representative of law and justice and not the tool and automaton of popular clamor. Since the recent Ku Klux controversy and the discovery of Judge Schenck's letter to, "Drive the Driver case," there is a growing sentiment in favor of THOS. S. ASHE and Judge SHIPP, either of whom would not be guilty of trickery in such a sacred contest. It is thought that Judge Schenck, is too restless and ambitious for the Judiciary and that politics would suit his nature and talents better. Judge Schenck would be applauded for his patriotism should he refuse to permit his name to be used in connection with the Supreme Court, for he cannot possibly poll the full party strength, unless Logan is his opponent. Shotwell's letter has damaged him severely, and any further efforts on his part to crush a poor and patriotic gentleman like Capt. Shotwell will rebound to his further hurt. The general remark about Shotwell's letter is that "it is the statement of a truthful man." No one can injure Shotwell with the people here, because whatever might be said about him, it certainly cannot be charged that he at any time showed the white feather or went back on his associates. Neither do we think with Judge Schenck that Jeffrey's "Bond is an upright Judge,and a gentleman."

Col. Wm. Johnston (the present incumbent) and B. R. Smith, both gentleman of large means, are candidates for Mayor of this city, and the contest is growing quite warm. The county is full of candidates ready to be sacrificed.

P. B. P.

A Slight Mistake.

(From the N. Y. Times)

The heroic conduct of a maiden lady who captured a burglar concealed under her bed by seizing his head and pounding it on the floor was set forth some months ago in these columns. Naturally, the heroism of the lady in questions was greatly applauded by her sex, and thousands of maiden ladies resolved that should they ever discover a burglar in a similar position they would do likewise. It is one thing, however, to resolve and another to execute—as, in regard to burglars, the recent experience of Miss Wilkinson, of Carlisle, Wis., clearly shows.

Miss Wilkinson is a much-respected lady who, from circumstances beyond her control, is unmarried and without any responsible relatives. She inhabits the three-pair front of a select boarding-house, and spends most of her time in the seclusion of her room. The other boarders on the same floor are all young men; but as Miss Wilkinson has a strong lock on her door, which she nightly reinforces with a washstand, she considers herself reasonably safe. Her room a model of neatness, and the chaste single bedstead which stands with its head between the two first windows is adapted to fill the mind with the holiest emotions. This remark may, perhaps, seem somewhat devoid of meaning, but there is no doubt that it is highly poetical.

On Sunday night last Miss Wilkinson returned from church at 9 o'clock, and, being somewhat tired, resolved to go to bed at once. She laid aside her outer garments and arrayed herself for the night, with the exception of postponing the removal of her boots. These she always wore, as she has subsequently explained until the last moment, with the view of guarding against cold and carpet tacks while moving the washstand against the door. She is an extremely methodical woman, and as it was always her habit to look under her bed for a burglar just after having removed the washstand, she made the usual inspection at the usual time. To her great horror she discovered a man under the bed. He was lying on his back, with his head toward one side of the bedstead and his feet toward the other,and evidently was not aware that had been discovered. The situation was a most alarming one, and had not Miss Wilkinson been sustained by the recollection that she had read the Times for many years, she would probably have fainted on the sprot.

Being a reader of the Times, she was one of the many single ladies who had read of the brave woman who captured a midnight burglar. She had always declared that in like circumstances she would imitate the brave woman's act, and it, of course, occurred to her that here was the opportunity for carrying her resolution into effect. Accordingly, she made a tremendous effort at self-control, and devised her plan of operations. She resolved to lie down across the bed, to seize the burglar's head in her hands, and to beat his head on the floor until the other boarders should come to her aid.

Hastily throwing a waterproof about her narrow form she proceeded to execute her plan. In spite of her courage, she was by no means perfectly cool, and, moreover, she had little acquaintance with men, and could not be expected to remember at which extremity a man usually wears his head. It thus came to pass that when she reached over the side of the bedstead to seize the burglar's head she was astonished to find his feet presented toward her. It was, however, too late to change her position, and she boldly seized the burglarious boots and shouted for help.

The burglar was much surprised at this novel method of attack, and demanded, in a low and indignant voice, what on earth she was trying for to do, receiving no answer, he straightened himself so that his head and arms emerged on the other side of the bed. Here Miss Wilkinson's boots, dangling in the air over his head, met his gaze, and he promptly seized them with a firmness that greatly astonished that lady.

It was very clear to Miss Wilkinson's mind that she had captured the burglar, but it was equally clear to that respectable person that he had captured Miss Wilkinson. Accordingly, when the latter summoned him to surrender, and announced that she would never let go her hold on his boots while life remained, he calmly replied by pointing out that he intended to hang on to her boots, and that—as he profanely expressed it—"honors was about even." It was at this period of the affair that the courageous lady began to have doubts as to who was captured, and she thereupon redoubled her cries for help, and tried her utmost to shake off the burglar's iron grasp.

The burglar was a person of much presence of mind and determination. He called Miss Witkinson's attention to the facts that he could hold on to her boots as long as she could hold on his, and that in case she continued her outcries he should proceed to reverse their respective positions by dragging her under the bed and permitting himself to be simultaneously dragged upon it. In all probability he would have put his threat into successful execution had not the lady's screams finally attracted the attention of the other boarders, who with much difficulty broke into the room just as Miss Wilkinson's boots were beginning to vanish under the bed, while the burglar's boots, to which the lady clung with unfaltering determination, were rising to the level of the counterpane. It took some time for Miss Wilkinson to thourghly explain the affair, and when her explanation had finally been grasped by the other boarders, they unanimously agreed that she had been captured by the burglar, and that the capture of the latter was exclusively their own work.

This affecting incident shows that a mistake in a mere matter of detail may spoil the best-laid scheme. Had Miss Wilkinson seized the burglar's head she would have rivaled the exploit of her heroic exemplar. As it was, the mistake of seizing his boots ruined her plan, and resulted in her own capture. Nevertheless, she meant well, and deserves due credit therefor.

Judge Shipp.

To the Editor of the News:

SIR: Now that Judge Schenck, notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts of himself and friends, has demonstrated that:

"The best laid schemes o' mice and men and has been compelled by public sentiment to withdraw from the Judicial contest, leaving a clear track for that modest gentleman and eminent jurist Chief Justice Smith, our minds naturally turn to the vacant chairs upon either side of Judge Smith and we begin to search the ranks of the profession to find the two best qualified to be his associates in the administration of Justice.
Gang aft a-gley,"

In this connection the names of many prominent members of our bar have been called to the attention of the public and among them I see that Hon. Wm. M. Shipp is earnestly recommended through the columns of the Charlotte Observer.

I can think of no man who would be more cordially supported.

Judge Shipp enjoys a State reputation of the highest character, and is a lawyer of unquestioned attainments. He has filled the position of Superior Court Judge, and of Attorney General of our State, with distinguished ability, meriting and re ceiving the admiration of all men by the faithful and efficient discharge of the duties of these high offices; and finally with his great popularity in the western portion of the State, he could do more perhaps, than any other towards quelling any dissatisfaction, consequent upon the failure of Schenck's ambitious scheming.

Let us restore to our Highest Judicial Tribunal the learning and the dignity which characterized its decisions in the ante-bellum days, by enveloping with ermine the shoulders of such men as Chief Justice Smith and Hon. Wm. M. Shipp. R.

An Enquiry.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 23d, 1878.

To the Editor of the News:

MR. Cicero W. Harris having uttered his sentiments in regard to the senatorial election of 1872, over his own signature, two correspondents of your cotemporary of this city, fire into him anonymously.

Perhaps they would have no objection to disclose themselves, in order that the public may the better judge with whom is the balance of authority, as the issue seems to be purely a personal one. One of them signs himself "Fair-play," and therefore ought to be willing to play fair. If he refuses to do so, the public will cease to wonder that a man who stands behind a mask and shoots at an adversary in the open field, and calls it fair play, shoul i think the manner in which Judge Merrimon acquired the senatorship, honorable and beneficial to party organization.

INQUIRER.

JOHNSTON, COUNTY, April 22, 1878.

(Correspondence of the News.)

Since the late hail storm we have had some most beautiful weather for farming purposes, and our farmers invariably are making good use of it. They are busily engaged in planting or preparing to plant cotton. A considerable amount of land will be cultivated in cotton this season.

In the matter of John Edwards, the condemned man now confined in jail awaiting execution, the papers were filed with the Clerk on Friday last by his counsel D. H. McLean taking an appeal to the Supreme Court and will have to await the action of that tribunal. We are pleased to see another county man hoist the name of Col. Waddell for the Solicitorship. He is deservedly popular among all of our people on account of his qualifications of head and heart; all due deference to other aspirants. "W."

CHAPEL HILL, April 22, 1878.

(Correspondence of the News.)

Our people are beginning to talk about the nominations. It is very plain that this part of the country would be highly pleased at the selection of Capt. John R. Hutchings, one of the best men in the country.

Editor of the Journal of Commerce:

Will you inform me when the money will be paid to the loyal citizens of the United States in the South for property and stock taken from them during the late war? Yours, truly,

W. R.

Reply.—No general provision now exists for the payment of such claims, and application must be made in each particular instance to Congress.

A Solid Fact.

(London World.)

Society does well to remember that of the ninety-nine (reputed) innocent sheep, ninety-eight are perhaps neither more nor less guilty than the one which has openly gone astray. It is not so much the devious excursion from the fold itself which is the offense, but the accident of its detection.

THE BANK OF STATESVILLE.

Important to Stockholders.

WINDSOR, N. C., April 8, 1878.

Editor of the Journal of Commerce:

In 1870 the Legislature of North Carolina granted a charter to a bank called the "Bank of Statesville." The bank was never organized, nor was any record kept of the proceedings. But the cashier appointed certain gentlemen directors of the bank, and another he appointed president, and published the bank in the newspapers as "open and ready to transact bank bu iness by taking notes for money loaned and receiving deposits." The gentleman who was appointed president and the directors knew that their names were so used, and the president, supposing that the bank had been organized as advertised, took five shares in stock for which he never paid. Some time afterward the cashier died, and it was ascertained for the first time that there was no bank or organization, and that the cashier had been running on deposits. This was unknown to the president, who did not live in the same town, until after the death of the cashier. There are a great number of creditors and there are no assets in the bank with which to pay them. Is the president liable for the debts of the institution to its creditors? Should they succeed in making fraud appear in the president, would he be liable above the amount of his stock, or liable at all? Please give me your ideas on the liability of the president in any point of view, and if there are any decisions bearing on the point, please refer me to them, or any work bearing on the point.

Yours, SUFFERER.

Reply.—If any personal liability on the part of the officers of the bank was created by the character, or the general laws of North Carolina, there is reason and authority for the belief that it could be enforced, notwithstanding the fact that no organization was actually formed. "A defect in the proceedings to organize a corporation is no defense to a stockholder sued to enforce his individual liability, as he has participated in the acts of user of the corporation de facto." (Eaton v. Aspinwall, 19 N. Y., 119). In Dooley v. Cheshire Glass Company, 15 Gray. 994, the defense was that the corporation had never been duly organized, but the court refused to allow the proof. The principle of estoppel is sometimes equitable, as well as technically permissible, and this is such a case. The doctrine does indeed seem to have been somewhat doubted in Whipple v. Parker, 28 Mich., 269, but in Swartwout v. Michigan Air Line Railroad Company, 24 Mich., 398, it was held that there may be such an estoppel.

The charter of the Bank of Statesville, however, imposes no individual liability upon either officers or stockholders. (Private laws of N. C., 1869-'71, chap. 64). Neither does the general law of the State applicable to corporations, unless a personal liability clause is contained in the plan of incorporation; but it is worth while to remember that the officers of an incorporation are personally liable on any contract over $100, which does not state on its face whether or no individual liability exists in the plan of the charter. (Battle's Revisal, 1873, p. 266)

We suggest, in default of any remedy in this direction, that persons professing to do business under a charter, not in force as to them or the business they are doing, are in reality simply partners, and liable as such. One of the objects of incorporation is to escape the personal liability which attaches to a partnership. (Angel & Ames on Corp., 41). And if persons associated together in business fail, through their own neglect, to protect themselves by a charter, we do not see why their individual liability does not remain, as if no pretense of a charter had been put forward. Neither the president's ignorance nor his failure to pay for his shares would in our opinion affect his responsibility, except as bearing on the question of fraud.

Democratic Meeting in Cherokee.

MURPHY, N. C., April 17, 1878.

The West, ever ready to do honor to her distinguished and admired sons when the opportunity presents itself, to-day in a county convention of the Democrats of Cherokee county, did as follows:

Hon. B. K. Dickey was chosen Chairman and J. W. King, Esq., was chosen Secretary.

Capt. J. W. Cooper explained the object of the meeting and also offered the following resolutions which were adopted:

Whereas, The State convention of the Democratic party will assemble at Raleigh on the 13th day of June next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the Supreme Court Bench, and whereas Western North Carolina is entitled to have a representative on the ticket, and whereas we recognize in the Hon. D. Schenck, great purity of private and public character, combined with the legal learning and energy necessary to constitute a Judge whose record will add lustre to the Judicial annals of North Carolina, therefore:

Resolved, That we do present the name of Hon. D. Schenck, of Lincoln county, as our candidate for a position on the Supreme Court Bench, and do hereby instruct our delegates to use every exertion to secure his nomination.

"Resolved, That the Chairman of this convention appoint five delegates to the said convention to cast the vote of this county.

"Resolved, That the Raleigh Observer, Raleigh NEWS and Asheville Citizen, be requested to publish the proceedings of this convention."

The Chairman appointed the following gentlemen: D. R. Moore, Esq., Dr. Washburn, Capt. J. W. Cooper, Col. Rolen and M. C. King, Esq., as delegates to said convention.

B. R. DICKEY, Chairman.

J. W. KING, Secretary

The Socialists understand the value of the press as a means of influencing public opinion. In Germany, according to a writer in the Pall Mall Gazette, they have no fewer than forty newspapers, and they have recently started a monthly periodical of literary pretensions. The pamphlets and occasional sheets issued by them are innumerable, and these are hawked about the country and find their way into the remotest towns and hamlets. No political party summons so many meetings as the Socialists. At municipal elections the party is one of the most active in Germany. In some municipal bodies they have actually secured the majority; and a short time ago a town in Wurtemberg would have had a Socialist for its burgomaster had not the government refused to sanction the appointment. So passionate is the belief of the Socialists in their destiny that, like the French Republicans in the early days of their triumph, they display a strong missionary ardor. The meetings annually held in London in celebration of the Commune are invariably addressed by Germans.

Brick are now being manufactured, near this place, with which to build the new Methodist Church. This building, which is to cost about $10,000, will be quite a handsome edifice, and a very great ornament to the town.

Our Baptist friends expect to occupy their new church building about the 1st of July. This, as well as the new Methodist church, will go very far towards giving our busy little town a city-like appearance.

Blackwell & Co's Durham Steam Printing House, already quite an extensive establishment and one of the most complete in the State, is to be still further enlarged by the addition of two improved presses.

We have heretofore inadvertently failed to announce the marriage, on the 10th instant, of Capt. T. B. Lyon, Jr., to Miss Mollie Hopkins. It is said that another of Durham's widowers will follow Capt. Tom's example in a day or two.

We learn that Messrs. W. T. Blackwell & Co. contemplate erecting several brick store-houses on Main street during the present summer. It is also rumored that Mr. Blackwell will build an elegant residence on the corner of Dillard and Railroad streets.

So far, we have heard of only two prospective candidates for the mayoralty, viz: Col. D. C. Parrish, the present incumbent, and Squire M. A. Angier. For commissioners, we have heard suggested the names of Messrs. E. J. Parrish, W. T. Blackwell, Wm. Maynor, J. Ed. Lyon, W. Duke, J. C. Wilkerson, William Mangum, John L. Markham.

The inventor sat at the secretary's desk twisting a small rubber band nervously in his fingers. His shaggy brown hair stood out at all angles in defiance of comb rule. His forehead was broad rather than high, and between his eyebrows, which were somewhat lighter in color than his hair, a crease appeared, which deepened when he spoke. He had no beard. His eyes were light gray, his nose prominent and his complexion of moderate clearness He looked the mechanic straight from his workshop, plainly dressed and cuffless.

The depreciation of the currency in Havana continues, although the reports show a cessation of hostilities. Owing to the bad condition of Spanish finances generally, this depreciation is likely to increase. The Havana Lottery tickets sold here for American money, when a prize is won, only pay about thirty cents, gold, on the dollar, and this fact has caused a great demand for the tickets of the celebrated Louisiana State Lottery Company, the President of which is M. THE McCOSKRY SCANDAL.

(From the Detroit News, Saturday.)

Mrs. Banister, nee Fanny Richards, called at the Evening News office yesterday afternoon, having, as she asserted, just learned for the first time of the scandal with which her name was connected. She declared, with most tragic indignation, that there was not a word of truth in the story. Her father had been a member of the British Parliament for Greenwich; on his death-bed he had written to Bishop McCoskry, requesting him to act as her guardian, a trust the Bishop had accepted; as such he had had the custody of money sent for her support by her uncle, who had been a classmate of the Bishop's at Oxford. She denied that Bishop McCoskry had ever paid a single cent for her schooling or anything else, except from her own moneys. She had never received but four letters from him, and these of the most commonplace character; nor had she ever acted as his amanuensis. The letters which have caused all the Bishop's trouble she declared must have been forged. He was innocent, and why he should resign and fly to Europe was more than she could understand. But he should never leave the country till she was vindicated, though she had to go on foot to New York to stop him.

Later in the afternoon she forwarded the following dispatch to the bishop:

REV. S. A. MCCOSKRY, care Dr. Mason, 113 West Twenty-fourth or Forty-fourth street, New York:

Return immediately and clear yourself and me from this vile charge. I demand it. MRS FRANK BANISTER.

CINCINNATI, April 20—A special dispatch from Davenport, Iowa, states that the Bishop of Iowa has published the following card:

"In view of the serious charges published in the daily press, affecting the character of the Bishop of Michigan, I would earnestly claim, in behalf of this aged man of nearly seventy-five years, that he should not be condemned, even in the popular mind, unheard, untried and on testimony unauthenticated by any responsible name. The House of Bishops of the American Church has always shown its readiness, by prompt and severe measures, to prove the honor of its members and vindicate its purity. In the present instance I beg a suspension of judgment until the diocese have time to act.

"WILLIAM STEVENS PERRY,
"Bishop of Iowa."

NEW YORK, April 21.—Bishop McCoskry sends the following to the Associated Press:

"I give my unqualified denial to the articles which have appeared in different papers against me.

"SAMUEL A. MCCOSKRY,
"Bishop of Michigan."

There has been an ecclesiastical war at West Granby, Conn, over the manufacture of cider-brandy; the contesting parties being the makers of a beverage to which liquid fire is as ice-water, and their pastor, the Rev. W. E. Tompkinson, of the M. E. Church. His predecessors had winked at the business, but finding remonstrance vain, Mr. T. opened an attack. Two of the offending members withdrew, and two others were brought to trial before the church, but their brethren acquitted them. The pastor appealed to the Meriden Conference, which sustained him, and the Presiding Elder spoke in a very uncomplimentary way of his opponents. The church remained on the side of the distillers, and finally shut the doors on Mr. Tompkinson. It charges him with being unduly harsh and uncompromising, and the prospect is that an independent church will be formed—the first perhaps in history based on applejack.

STATE NEWS.

The citizens of Hickory will give a large ball to the editors of the State when the Press Convention assembles there in July.

Wadesboro Argus: Gen W L T Prince, who has been living in our town for twelve months past, has moved to Cheraw, S. C., his native home.

The District Convention of the Sixth Judicial District will assemble at Charlotte on the 22d of May, and that of the Seventh at Yadkinville on June the 8th.

Bakersville Republican: Hon S Trivett, of McDowell, will address the citizens of this county on Tuesday of Court week, upon the subject of the Moffett Bell Punch Liquor Law. We understand he intends to make that a question in the August election for members of the Legislature.

Goldsboro Messenger: The trucking season may now be said to have fairly opened in this section. Nearly 400 bushel boxes of garden peas were shipped from here on Friday last, and the shipments during this week promise to be very heavy....The hanging will not take place at Smithfield this Friday as was expected. We learn that the counsel of John Edwards have appealed to the Supreme Court.

New Berne Nut Shell: A colored boy named Peter Jones, about 14 years age, was in bathing, in company with four or five comrades, at the railroad wharf Saturday, and was drowned. It seems that he informed the other boys that he could swim, probably from fear of their taunts at his ignorance in that respect, and consequently when he plunged off into deep water, which he did as soon as he became undressed, they made no attempt to restrain him. As he was about to make the fatal plunge, he remarked, "Well, boys, I am going in there to stay forever. Good-bye!"

Danville News: The action of the people of Madison and the proposed action of the people of Statesville has created quite a feeling of enthusiasm among the citizens of Danville for the construction of the Dan Valley Coal Field railroad, and we understand that Maj. Morehead, president of the company, will be requested to call a meeting of the board of directors at an early day for the purpose of adopting such measures as will give fresh vitality to that company, and secure the construction of the road at an early day. We are gratified to see this feeling among our people, for no road from Danville can penetrate a better section of country or one that will contribute more to the prosperity of Danville, and we feel sure that she will subscribe liberally to the construction of this important line. We hope the council of Danville will at an early day order a vote of the citizens on an a subscription of fifty thousand dollars.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

Atlanta boasts that she is the healthiest city in the South.

Sam Bard calls Vicksburg a city of talent, refinement, beauty and business capacity.

A Macon, Georgia, man has invented a circular saw that turns out lumber planed perfectly smooth.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Texas now contains a membership of 77,000.

Barnwell county, S. C., has now 29 full companies of militia—15 cavalry and 14 infantry companies.

Wm. H. Vanderbilt has donated $1,000 for the enlargement of the library at Vanderbilt University.

Kentucky has given $5,000 for a monument to General Zackary Taylor, and Senator Beck wants Congress to give $5,000 more.

Tomatoes sell in Key West at from six to ten cents a box. They are so abundant that many growers are feeding them to their hogs.

Texas estimates an increase of fifteen per cent. in her wheat crop over last year. The acreage last year was about 400,000; this year it will be about 450,000 acres, which at an average yield of thirteen bushels per acre will produce a crop of 5,850,000 bushels.

The sale of pews in the new synagogue of Mickva Israel so far amounts to twenty-one thousand six hundred dollars. Not half of the pews are yet disposed of, and is exclusive to those rented. This is a handsome showing for the synagogue in Savannah.

Capt. Eads in Memphis: There is not a stretch of the river from St. Louis to New Orleans, fifty miles long, in which I have not stood on some part of the river bottom, beneath the shelter of the diving-bell. I have known the river intimately for forty years. I have made a life of it, and I know what I am talking about.

Dallas Commercial: It is said that the number of immigrants to Kansas this year will reach 500,000. This puts Kansas in the lead of Texas. This is a matter which should be sharply looked after by this State. There can be no doubt that the reputation for lawlessness which attaches to the name of the State is working against us.

As the minister of a country church in Georgia was about to marry a couple a lady objected on the ground that the intended bride was not of age, and her parents were ignorant of the act. The clergyman said it was not a legal objection, and decided to put the matter to vote. A unanimous aye! by the congregation was the result, and the knot was tied.

Columbus Enquirer: Since 1871 land in Georgia has diminished in value in fifty-six counties out of the one hundred and thirty-seven into which the State is divided, and has increased in value in the other eighty-one counties—that is to say, there has been a decrease in little more than one-third of the whole number of counties and an increase in little less than two-thirds.

A Savannah man pursued his eloping daughter, and found her in a hotel with her new husband. She was of age, and therefore he could not force her to return home; but he was the lawful owner of her clothing, and he compelled her to go to her room and take off every shred of it. Then he went back to Savannah with a large bundle under his arm, and the women in the hotel contributed something for the bride to wear.

The State's Material Welfare.

It would not be a bad thing if the people of this State would turn their minds, even for a little while, from the troubled sea of politics to the calmer, purer, better and more profitable things which appertain to the material interests with which the individual welfare of each citizen is so closely and inseparably interlocked. Politics is good enough in its place. It serves many beneficent purposes. It affords occupation for some patriotic souls, who might otherwise degenerate into tramps, and become public nuisances. It gives bread to the hungry, and so unconsciously and undesignedly performs the functions of a charitable institution. It operates as a safety valve for street corner statesmen, enabling them to let off those dangerous accumulations of gas, which might otherwise explode and produce results too painful to contemplate. It furnishes never-failing, inexhaustible, interminable and never-varying topics of conversation to those gossips of the male gender, who deprived of this pabulum, might be tempted to seek to supply the deficiency by drawing upon their reserved stores of private scandals. For these and numberless other reasons to be gathered on higher and nobler planes of thought, we do not decry politics; but, in view of the needs of North Carolina, we do enter our protest against its becoming the topic of every conversation, the theme of every discussion, the subject of every editorial, and the burden of every speech in the approching campaign. We would have the pens and tongues of all patriotic men employed, for the most part, from this time to the adjournment of the next Legislature, in the discussion of the questions connected with the developement, enrichment and general prosperity of our State.

How shall our public school system be made more effective for the education of the children? At present there is but one dollar to the child, per year; it is insufficient; how shall the amount be increased, and how much? There are over four hundred thousand children in the State of the school age; only two hundred thousand are receiving even the bare semblance of a primary education which our poor school system furnishes—how shall the remaining two hundred thousand embryo citizens be reclaimed from ignorance? The subject is a broad one; a vastly important one; and one that none but the intellectually blind or naturally short-sighted and normally narrow-minded, will deliberately ignore.

Turning from the Educational field to the Agricultural, we are immediately confronted with many questions of vital consequence. How shall the Agricultural Department be carried forward to the greatest possible usefulness and value? Shall the fence burden be lifted from the shoulders of the farmers? How shall sheep husbandry be protected and promoted? There are millions involved in the solution of these questions; and yet, millions more in this—How shall our people be made independent of Western granaries and smoke-houses, and less dependent on New England mills and factories? The statesman who can lead us up to the proud position of independence here faintly outlined, would be the greatest benefactor North Carolina ever possessed.

But education, agriculture and manufactures, are not the only departments of thought and activity which demand our attention. Our mineral wealth, now lying buried, is to be brought to the surface; our magnificent forests are to be utilized; the rich swamps that stud the flat lands of the east, are to be drained and made fit for the plow; and our streams are to be rendered navigable, where that can be accomplished by moderate expenditures of money; and the splendid grazing lands, in many parts of the State, now lying idle, are to be covered with flocks and herds. A vast amount of progress is to be made before we can claim that we have touched even the border-land of the possibilities in North Carolina's future.

In addition to what we have here said, there remain hundreds of important questions connected with the improvement of the public roads; the regulation of the railroads; the building of new railways; the construction of narrow gauge feeders to the trunk lines; the preservation of game; the re-stocking of our depleted rivers with fish; the revision of the criminal law; the improvement in modes of taxation; the adjustment of the public debt, &c., &c.

In one way or another nearly, if not quite, all of the subjects which we have thus briefly alluded to will be touched upon. Some of them may be crystallized into bills for the consideration of the next General Assembly.

It is, therefore, we think eminently wise that, as far as practicable, the various questions arising out of the more prominent needs of the State should be fully and fairly discussed before the people, by the press, by candidates, by canvassers, and by all the public speakers, in the approaching campaign. We have an unfailing faith in the good, hard sense of our countrymen; and we are satisfied that the more accurately and closely their views and wishes are followed out by the representatives whom they choose to speak for them in the halls of legislation, the better for the State. Let us, then, have, this year, a little less politics than we are wont to receive at the hands of those who by reason of their superior intelligence, virtue, shrewdness, or demagoguecal arts, shape and direct public thought; and let discussion turn more upon those things which lie at the base of the State's prosperity.

We do not wonder at all at the growth of Infidelity in the North. What with the sensational preaching which obtains in so many of the churches, and the lecherous conduct of some of the pastors of flocks, it is a little surprising even that the various religious denominations thrive as well as they do. On Sunday last, Easter Day, the subject in one at least of the prominent pulpits of New York city, was Mrs. Tilton's confession! Rev. Charles P. McCarthey preached on "A Psychological Problem—An Open Confession, which is neither good for the Soul nor Society." The text was Genesis. 27:XXII—"The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." He said—"These words embody the idea of fraud, falsehood, heartless chicanery and well directed subterfuge. Their application to the confession, which is supposed to be the production of Mrs. Tilton, may be freely rendered thus:—The voice is the voice of Elizabeth, but the hands are the hands of Theodore," &c. Further on this pandarer to the appetite for scandal affirms that he was "sent to preach," &c. When pulpits are degraded to this point, that social filth becomes the staple subjects of discourse, it is not surprising that people flock by the thousand to hear such men as Ingersoll.

THE men who can look over the heads of candidates to the interest of North Carolina, and can subor linate personal predilections and antipathies to the good of their party and country, must make themselves heard and felt in Democratic counsels, and prevent threatened breaches of discipline. For the hundredth time, we repeat, we can not afford divisions. We will have need of the full power of our organization to maintain our ascendancy in the State. When election day arrives you may bet your bottom dollar the Republicans will be united. Their quarrels always end before the ballot-box. Let us be sure our squabbles end before the lines are drawn for the fight; and that all our petty, puerile discordances, born of jealousies and rivalries between candidates for nominations, are forgotten in good time. There is too much at stake to admit of distracting differences upon minor points. Individuals sink into insignificance when compared with the great principles and issues involved in the contest this summer. It is in the power of the people, and the thoughtful, patriotic, unaspiring local leaders who tower among them, to right up the ship, and set her going on smooth waters.

BISMARCK is credited with saying that a war between England and Russia would be "a duel between a whale and an elephant." Lord Derby declares that should England go to war with Russia, she would be fighting for "a shadow," and that "shadow," he says, she could not obtain. As a statesman, Derby ranks second only to the great German Chancellor. The news this morning throws no new light on the situation. It seems impossible for the Russian and British ministries to come to terms; and in the meantime preparations for active hostilities are being rapidly advanced on both sides.

A SENSATIONAL story from Paris has reached the American ear through the New York press, to the effect that a bolt, of magnificent proportions, from the English Church to the Roman Catholic Church is contemplated. The number of expectant seceders is placed as high as three million of people. Included in the proposed exodus are bishops, rectors, curates and deacons. Authorized delegates, it is assetred, are now in Rome negotiating the conditions upon which the secession will take place. Should there be truth in the story, and such secession were to take place, it would be the most important event in the religious history of the century. The tale, as yet, lacks confirmation.

SENATOR GORDON says "that he stands by the Administration when it is right and goes against it as freely when it is wrong." That, it strikes us, is the proper attitude for Southern Democrats to occupy towards President Hayes. No principle is sacrificed by maintaining a position of this kind, and much good may come of it, in the future, as in the past twelve months.

EDWARDS, the Johnston county wife-murderer, will not be hanged this week. The process of the law has been stayed by an appeal to the Supreme Court. The trial of the Worley murderers is set for next Tuesday, at Goldsboro, before Judge Kerr.

A GREAT strike prevails in England. Ninety thousand hard-working men are struggling to prevent a reduction in their wages.

WITH the quarrels of individuals the Democratic party can have nothing to do.

A tooth-pick factory having been established in Milwaukie, one of the dailies of that city enthusiastically calls out that business shows every sign of fully reviving, and that the long, dark night seems to have passed away.

SAVE YOUR HAIR

TO LEARN HOW TO DO IT READ AND HEED WHAT FOLLOWS.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—The laws of Health and Longevity demand it, the customs of social life require it. The matter is of great importance in every way.

BEAUTIFY YOUR HAIR.—It is the surpassing crown of glory, and for the loss of it there is no compensation.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S

discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

BESIDES BEING THE BEST HAIR DRESSING EVER PRODUCED, LYON'S KATHAIRON WILL POSITIVELY PREVENT GRAYNESS, AND WILL RESTORE NEW HAIR TO BALD HEADS, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It also daily performs these seeming miracles of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I had been entirely bald for several years constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To restore Gray Hair
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The sticky paste of sulphur and paint and daub the hair. Kathairon is no brain. It is a pure and simple vegetable and paralyze the lotion, intended to restore the natural growth and reinvigorate. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

Kiss Me for Myself.

"Let me kiss you for your mother,"
Bending gently down she said,
To this darling little sunbeam,
With a golden curly head.

With smiling lips he gave her
A baby's kiss so sweet;
And she turned upon her promenade
Along the crowded street.

"Wait a moment lovely lady,"
Said the cunning little elf;
"You have kissed me for my mother,
Now kiss me for myself."

GENERAL NOTES.

Paris will be lit by electric light.

Bessie Turner is said to be at the point of death.

Artificial flowers now represent about every blossom known to mankind.

A musical critic in Vermont speaks of a young lady whose voice goes up like a kite.

The favorite fruit of the Parisian is the apple, the sale of which is regulated by law.

Valentine Baker Pasha has left England for Constantinople, for the purpose of writing a history of the late campaign.

Baron Rothschild—who dines with Lord Beaconsfield every Sunday—is reported as saying the other day: "I do not know anything more about it than this mustard-pot, but I believe there is going to be war."

"Does your sister Annie ever say anything about me, sissy?" asked an anxious lover of a little girl. "Yes," was was the reply, "she said if you had rockers on your shoes they'd make a nice cradle for my doll."

The remains of another mastodon have been discovered in Ashtabula county, Ohio. The skull measures about 3 feet in length, and 2 feet 9 inches across between the eyes. The largest rib is 4 feet 5 inches long.

"Oh, ma, he is just so lovely!" she said; "for two whole hours he poured sentiment into my willing ears." "Lovely! Well, I don't know what young girls are coming to; I don't see how you could let him. If there's one thing in the world I detest more than another it's sentiment, especially when I find it at the bottom of the water pitcher."

A demi-mondaine of Washington obtained a front seat in the Senate gallery one day last week, and dropped from her cosy corner of vantage a perfumed billet-doux upon the desk of a dignified Senator beneath. He read it, and sent for the Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms, and that stern official led the fair and frail one out of the gallery by her tiny, shell-like ear.

At the Easter Reception of the Cardinals, Saturday, Pope Leo dwelt upon the strength and vitality of the Pontificate. He said: "The war which has been declared against the Papacy from the earliest times continues with undiminished fierceness. Trusting in God, we are ready to carry on the warfare and to uphold the rights of the Church." The Pontiff concluded by expressing hope that the erring children would finally submit.

The most complete war volcano on a small scale is Krupp's foundry at Essen, which turns out in every twenty-four hours about twelve miles of rails, with tires, wheels, axles and springs in proportion, as well as 1,500 shells of various sizes and construction. In one month 300 cannon are produced, and since 1847, 15,000 have been made. The establishment daily consumes 1,800 tons of coke and coal, has seventy-seven steam hammers, 8,500 workmen in the cast-steel department, and altogether 16,200 toiling men, women and children.

It is reported by the London correspondent of The Hartford Courant, that Lord Salisbury, the new Foreign Secretary, was once a constant writer for the London press, which in some measure explains the direct and analytical style that characterizes all his state papers. He is the second son of the late Marquis; and he married, it is understood, contrary to the wishes of his father. His wife is the daughter of Baron Alderson, and Lady Alderson was the daughter of Opie, the painter. The marriage being distasteful to the late Marquis, he is understood to have treated his son with some harshness, and like many other younger children of wealthy peers, he had for a long time to earn his living by literary labor.

They have some queer girls in Colorado. One of them, who resided in Cache la Proude Valley, had been receiving the attentions of a young man for about a year, but becoming impatient at his failure to bring matters to a crisis, she resolved to ascertain his intentions. When he next called she took him gently by the ear, led him to a seat and said: "Nobby, you've been foolin' around this claim for mighty near a year, en' have never yit shot off yer mouth on the marryin' biz. I've cottened to yer on the square clean through, an' hav stood off every other critoot that has tried to chin in, an' now I want yer to come down to business or I ave the ranch. Ef yer on the marry an' want a pard that'll stick rite to yer till ye pass in yer checks, but ef that aint yer game draw out an' give some other fellow a show for his pile. Now sing yer song or skip out." He sang.

Alternately Shaken

And Scorched by the paroxysms of chills and fever, the wretched sufferer for whom quinine has been prescribed essays in vain to exterminate the dreadful disease with that baneful palliative, which at best only mitigates its evil, since the fits, and eventually proves highly injurious to the system. In order to effect a thorough cure of malarial fever, whether intermittent or remittent, or to fend the system impregnable to its attacks, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters should be used daily. That this medicine is a sovereign eradicant of diseases generated by miasmatic or malarious influence, is a fact so widely recognized in this and other countries that to advance evidence in support of it is unnecessary; but were it either essential or desirable to do so, it may well be supposed that from the testimony corroborative of its claims, which has been accumulating during the last twenty-five years and over, sufficient proofs might be gathered to convince the most inveterate skeptic,

Trains are now running daily as follows:

Leave Washington for Dymond City and Jamesville on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10 o'clock a. m., and arriving at Jamesville in time for the mail and connecting there with steamer "Astoria" for Plymouth and all points North via. "Chowan" on Monday and Friday, and with "Steamer Astoria and Vesta" for Plymouth and all points North via Chowan on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Leaves Jamesville for Dymond City & Washington on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m., after arrival of Steamer "Astoria" and mails on Tuesday and Saturday, and of Steamer "Cannon" on Thursday from the North. The Steamer "Cannon" leaves Jamesville on Saturday evening, landing her passengers in Norfolk at 1 o'clock on Sunday.

These steamers as well as others carry passengers and freight on the Roanoke, and a few steamers are on the direct route with Baltimore.

The train returns each evening to Dymond City (Company's Works) where there is a good Hotel; and Dr. Knight keeps a comfortable house on the Company's ground at Jamesville, a Hotel is also about being built at the Washington end for the comfort and convenience of travelers.

This route offers an agreeable change, enabling tourists &c, to visit Greenville and points on the Tar River by steamer from Washington to Tarboro, and connect at Rocky Mount with the Wilmington & Weldon R. R. or to Goldsboro, Raleigh and the West. Also by stage or steamer to Newbern from Washington.

In ordering goods, direct care of J. & W. R. R. & L. Co., Jamesville, Martin County, N. C. Rates for passengers and freight as low as by any other line. The Postoffice Department have ordered a daily mail service on our line from first of next month.

LEE'S PREPARED AGRICULTURAL LIME.

To The Cotton Growers of North Carolina.

The Commissioner of Agriculture having decided that I cannot have an Agency in your State for the sale of this cheap and valuable fertilizer, without paying a tax of $ 00—which I cannot do without materially advancing the price, I solicit your orders for it, which will be promptly filled on the following terms on board cars in Richmond:

$12 Per Ton Cash, or $15 Per

TON for an approved acceptance on Raleigh, Charlotte, Wilmington, Petersburg, Norfolk, or Richmond, payable on the 1st of November next, or at 8 months from date.

I respectfully refer you to Messrs. J. J. Thomas, Raleigh; J. W. O'Neil, Clayton and others who sold it last spring, and to the various farmers who used it, who say it makes as much cotton as fertilizers costing 3 or 4 times as much. Address,

A. S. LEE,

I have tried the Xanthine and found it to be all it claims in restoring hair to its natural color and removing dandruff.

W. W. BENNETT.

(From Rev. Mr. Cameron, Minister of the Presbyterian Church South.)

MOSSY CREEK, Tenn., August 22, 1876.

Xanthine Co., Richmond, Va.:

I have used the Xanthine now for three years, and have induced others to try it, and have never known it to fail in accomplishing all you claim for it. It is an excellent tonic a pleasant dressing, removing and preventing dandruff and all unpleasant itching, promoting and preserving the natural growth and color of the hair, and rendering it glossy and pliable. I confidently, cheerfully and knowingly recommend it.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——"Sing me a song."

——Mr. E. B. Parkinson sends us specimens of English Peas, grown at his truck farm near the city.

——Some music is held in the Post-office for want of postage, addressed to Miss Maggie Schenck, Cleaveland Mills, N. C.

——Edward J. Jones has been reappointed a Commissioner of Affidavits for this State, resident at Boston, Massachusetts.

——The spider-web lines of telephones thread the air in all directions. They now have some central lines with numerous side calls or way stations.

——Nine stars of the first magnitude and one bright planet can be seen each clear evening. More of them are now visible than at any other time of the year.

——Markovitz, one of the Servian Generals, has been shot. The reason given why his untimely fate was deserved, is that his name was too easily pronounced. The Servians like ponderous nomenclatures.

——Don't forget to attend the Dime Party given by the ladies, connected with the Order of Good Templars of this city, at Metropolitan Hall, this evening. Everybody should patronize this good and noble cause.

The Proposed New County.

Some weeks past we jotted down an item in reference to the proposed formation of a new county out of portions of Wake, Chatham and Harnett. From Y. P. L., a resident at New Hill, in this county, we obtain the following particulars, in reference to the proposed boundary line: The line will begin at a point on the Cape Fear river, in Harnett county, and run up that stream to the junction of the Deep and Haw. Thence along the Haw to New Hope. From New Hope to a point near Farrington's Mill, thence nearly due east to a point near Green Level. From there the line will run between Apex and Cary, to a point on the Johnston line, and thence to the beginning.

The entire subject will be brought before the next Legislature by the citizens residing in the limits of the territory. Those interested, urge the measure as a convenient step, and wish it to be utterly out of the realm of politics.

The Dime Party.

As was confidently predicted the Dime Party at the First Presbyterian church on Easter Monday evening, was a perfect success both as far as pleasure was concerned as well as in financial results. The Session Room was well lighted and handsomely and conveniently arrayed. The bill of fare was varied, and everything edible was served up in admirable style. All that the ladies could do to make everybody feel the pleasures of the occasion, was done. Major B. W. Starke had kindly tendered the ladies the use of the Telephone. One of the call bells was in the church, and the other in the Holleman building. The singing was good. The young ladies of the Peace Institute were out en masse, and their rosy cheeks, sparkling eyes and charming conversation added much to the pleasures of the occasion. The festivities were prolonged until a late hour. The proceeds of the entertainment were over $100.

The 20th of May as a State Holiday.

Some time since we called attention to the propriety of the observance of the 20th of May, North Carolina's independence day, as a holiday this year, saying that its observance should be universal in the State. The Charlotte Observer fully agrees with us and says: "The Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence should be a matter of State and not merely of county pride. Its memory is a common glory and the observance of its anniversary should be regarded a common duty and pleasure in all North Carolina."

Orange Presbytery.

This venerable religious body will commence its 218th semi-annual session this evening at 7½ o'clock, in New Berne. We notice in the city the following delegates: Rev E Hines, Rev J W Primrose, Rev Mr Darnell, of Milton; Rev Mr Fitzgerald, Hillsboro; Rev Mr Alexander, Guilford; Rev Jacob Dall, Reidsville; Rev Mr Martin, Lexington; Rev Mr Faucett, Orange county; Rev Mr Currie, and others.

An Appeal to Employers.

The members of the Bucket and Ladder Fire Company respectfully request employers who have members of the company in their service to allow such members one half the first day of May to enable them to participate in the celebration of the 7th anniversary of the organization of the company. You will please grant this request.

A. L. GORHAM, Captain.
J. W. WINSLOW, Secretary.

Discharge of a Convict.

To-morrow the authorities of the State Penitentiary will discharge from that Instution Emily Banner, a black woman, convicted in Forsyth county, of larceny, and sentenced to the Penitentiary May 14th, 1877. She is 26 years old, 5 feet 4 inches high, has black hair and eyes and weighed, when admitted, 138 lbs.

The Episcopal Convention.

At a meeting of the vestry of Christ Church the following were elected as delegates to the annual convention, which meets at Wilmington May 8th: Col W E Anderson, Samuel A Ashe, Esq, Maj F H Cameron, Maj John C Winder. The following are the alternates: Messrs Chas E Johnson, Chas McKimmon, P F Faison, John W Hinsdale.

Department of Agriculture.

A circular was sent out a day or so since to every correspondent of the Department in the State. It requests information as to sheep-raising, improved cattle and hogs, manufactures, Improved implements and machinery, the "stock law;" as to threatened damage to crops by insects, etc. Specimens of crops are asked for, to be sent as soon as matured. Mr. Hinshaw, the correspondent for Forsythe, responded promptly with full information. His example ought to be followed by the rest.

Mr. W. R. Stephenson, one of the farmers of our county, exhibits some wheat three feet high. It was sowed in October, and is of the purple straw variety.

Mr. Thomas H. Briggs sends a magnificent specimen of Rye, nearly 7 feet high. It was sowed last fall, and out April 20th.

D. W. C. Benbow sends orchard grass 34 inches in height, and James W. Allbright sends clover 36 inches high. Both these gentlemen reside in Guilford county.

The fourth quarterly report of the Commissioner, dated April 16, 1878, contains much of interest. The sale of forty brands of Fertilizers is now licensed. The manufacturers of the Norfolk Fish Guano, Lister Bros.' Standard Superphosphate, Popplein's Silicated Phosphate, Zell's Tobacco Fertilizer, who sold in our State last year, have declined to renew their license for these brands.

The quantity of fertilizers reported by railroad and steamboat companies as transported, amounted in 1877 to 16,949 tons, and for the months of January, February and March, 1878, to 16,934 tons.

The case contesting the constitutionality of the privilege tax on Fertilizers, and which was pending before our Supreme Court, has been decided—the court declaring the act to be constitutional.

The fish-hatching and propagation is also reported upon. The United States Fish Commission had before the co-operation of our State distributed 213,000 shad in the Neuse and Catawba. Since, under the supervision of our Board, the following have been distributed: In the Neuse, Yadkin, Haw, Catawba, Tar and Contentnea, 446,000 shad; in the Yadkin, Pigion, Cape Fear, Linville, John's, Broad and Swannanoa, 234,000 California salmon; while, in four rivers and four ponds, 15,500 land-locked salmon have been placed. In the past week 500,000 shad from Avoca have been placed in the Neuse, Meherrin, Roanoke, and Nottoway. The aggregate number of shad fry distributed is 11,594,000.

In this connection he mentions the courteous and special favors extended by Col J M Robinson, President, and Major J C Winder, General Superintendent of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and by Col A B Andrews, Superintendent of the North Carolina Division of the Richmond & Danville Railroad. Application was made to Major Winder, Col Andrews and Col Pope, Superintendent of the W & W R R, and E G Ghio, Superintendent S & R R R, for free transportation for our messengers and cans in the distribution of fish. Major Winder and Mr Ghio promptly and generously responded, granting the request, as it is hoped the other gentlemen will do as soon as they can be heard from.

In regard to the Paris Exposition and our State representation thereat, Colonel Polk says: "In compliance with an order made at your last meeting, I made such collection of the products of our State for that Exhibition as my limited time would allow. In response to my appeal, contributions were made from the following named counties: Orange, Duplin, Cumberland, New Hanover, Anson, Guilford, Halifax, Iredell, Wayne, Moore, Caldwell, Catawba, Sampson, Craven, Columbus, Wilson, Cabarrus, Johnston, Wake, Pender, Bladen, Chatham, Rowan, Pitt, Forsythe, Montgomery, Davidson and Randolph. The collection, though small, was in variety and quality very creditable. Under the ruling of Hon. R. C. McCormick, United States Commissioner General, we were not allowed to send any specimens of minerals, ores, or manufactured products. Hence the meagre display made by us, consisting entirely of our Agricultural products. These were securely packed and forwarded to Hon W G LeDuc, U S Commissioner of Agriculture at Washington City. The unwise and unfortunate mistake made by refusing to have our State represented in the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia might in some measure have been remedied, had we not been unjustly excluded by so limiting the time as to make it impracticable for us to collect specimens."

An Economical Administration.

We get a few points in regard to the management of the city government of Durham. That burg has every reason to be satisfied with the conduct of its affairs. The population is 15,00. In the various factories are employed 350 hands. The Mayor is Col. D. C. Parrish. There are five Commissioners. There is one policeman, who acts as Chief of Police. Town Constable, is collector of general and special taxes, has charge of all the streets and street work, serves all processes issued by the Mayor, collects all finds and costs imposed. This functionary for all these multitudinious services rendered, is paid the sum of $35 per month! Some would-be cities, with an expensive array of officials would do well to take as pattern the unpretentious, but efficient system in use by Durham.

For States Prison.

The authorities of the Penitentiary, on yesterday, received from Deputy Sheriff R. B. Blackridge, the following convicts from Craven county, all convicted of larceny, and all colored: Nathan Wingate, 5 years; Daniel Webster, 3; Sam'l Williams, alias Chas. Merritt, 5; Mitchell Sasser and Benjamin Sasser, 2 years each.

Deputy Sheriff, H. Preslar, of Union county, turned over to the authorities of the penitentiary last evening, two convicts from that county: Dan'l. White, for larceny, four years; Jas. Horton, for larceny, two and a half years.

Sale of Stock Shares.

Mr. James M. Towles, auctioneer, sold at the Court House door yesterday noon, twenty shares of the stock of the N. C. State Life Insurance Co. The purchaser was Col. D. M. Carter, and the price $5.05 per share. The stock was the property of J. A. Womack, Admr. of Gorrell, dec'd.

Personals.

Mr. Geo. M. Smedes, one of our rising young barristers, has concluded to take Greeley's advice, and "Go West," so he leaves to-day for Chicago. He will return in three weeks.

Mr. A. H. Boyden is quite unwell at the Yarbrough.

Judge J. N. Bunting is ill with an attack of bilious fever.

Cotton Report.

The receipts of cotton yesterday in this city, were 28 bales. The market was weak.

Justice Upchurch tried the case of one Eli Mason, negro, charged by his wife with beating her cruelly. The culprit was discharged, upon payment of costs, the Justice administering a severe reprimand, and telling him if he again transgressed he would be properly punished.

TEN YEARS OF HORRIBLE TORTURE.—Mrs. Sarah Hanlon, of East 33d street, New York, for ten years bore, as patiently as she could, the agony of a leg swollen to four times its natural size, which was red and raw, and from which constantly oozed a blistering secretion. One week's application of Giles' Liniment Iodide Ammonia restored the hideous member to complete soundness. Sold by all druggists. Send for pamphlet.

VEGETINE.

VEGETINE

FOR

EPILEPSY.

BARABOO, May 15, 1877.

H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—My husband has had Epilepsy for the past fifteen years. The past winter his blood seemed to be in a bad condition and seeing the good results from the use of Vegetine in others, felt anxious to try it. Has taken some six bottles, and the result has been, that he has had only ten fits in three months past; whereas, he was accustomed to having as many in two days at his worst, an effect that he did not expect. Am very anxious to have him continue the use some longer; and write you to ask you what terms, or what reduction you would make and send me one dozen bottles.

Very respectfully,
MRS. A. C. COLE.
Baraboo, Sauk Co., Wis.

Vegetine throughly eradicates every kind of humor, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.

Vegetine

ST. VINCENT SCHOOL, TROY, N. Y., Oct. 5, 1871.

DR. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—We are truly grateful for your generous donation of Vegetine received last evening. A lady has been using it here, with much benefit to herself, who, for years, has been pronounced "broken down," "worn out" &c. Frequently she was disturbed in her sleep by a violent nervous twitching of a foot, or the face, or the whole body. By taking this Vegetine, she is enabled to sleep quietly, and her general health seems much improved, though she has a complication of chronic diseases to contend with. May God bless you for your charity to the orphans.

Respectfully and gratefully,
SISTERS OF CHARITY.

HARASSING DREAMS.—An unnatural excitement of the brain and nervous system is the direct cause of sleeplessness, as also of harassing nocturnal dreams. Vegetine has a peculiarly soothing effect in all such cases, when taken just before going to bed.

Vegetine

FOR ALL LADIES

Who are Sufferers.

CINCINNATI, O., March 28, 1877.

MR. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I have taken several bottles of your Vegetine for Female Weakness, and in justice to the medicine, and to all ladies who are sufferers from such complaints, I will recommend the Vegetine. I must say it has helped me very much; indeed, it is invaluable for such complaints.

MARY E. MEREDITH,
160 Eastern Avenue.

FEMALE WEAKNESS.—Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cleanses and cures ulceratio, cures constipation, regulates the bowels; the diseased pains in the back etc; in fact, there is no disease or complaint where the Vegetine gives so quick relief, and is so effective in its cure, as in what is termed Female Weakness. It has never failed in one instance.

VEGETINE

Druggists Recommend it.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 28 1877.

Having for many years sold Vegetine manufactured by Mr. H. R. Stevens Boston, Mass., I cheerfully recommend it to the afflicted generally.

Respectfully,

CHEAP

KANSAS LANDS!

We own and control the Railway lands of TREGO COUNTY, KANSAS, about equally divided by the Kansas Pacific Railway, which we are selling at an average of $3 25 per acre on easy terms of payment. Alternate sections of Government lands can be taken as homesteads by actual settlers.

These lands lie in the GREAT LIMESTONE BELT of Central Kansas, the best winter wheat producing district of the United States yielding from 20 to 35 bushels per Acre.

The average yearly rainfall in this county is nearly 35 inches per annum, one-third greater than in the much-extolled Arkansas Valley, which has a yearly rainfall of less than 25 inches per annum in the same longitude.

Stock-Raising and Wool-Growing are very Remunerative. The winters are short and mild. Stock will live all the year on grass!

Living Streams and Springs are numerous. Pure water is found in wells from 20 to 60 feet deep. The Healthiest Climate in the World. No fever and ague there. Members of our firm reside at Wakeeney, and will show lands at all times.
